
Climate Data Analysis Form

What aspect of the system is being studied? Read the figure caption

What variables are being reported? List them only. Note if they are the independent or the dependent variable(s), where applicable.

What are the important relationships between those variables?

How confident are scientists in the available data? What limitations exist in the data? (if applicable)

What future effects are predicted? (If applicable) What predictions can you make from these data?